Charlotte Tilbury Pretty Youth Glow Filter, Pretty Fresh, ₹2,715

BLUSH WITH GREATNESS

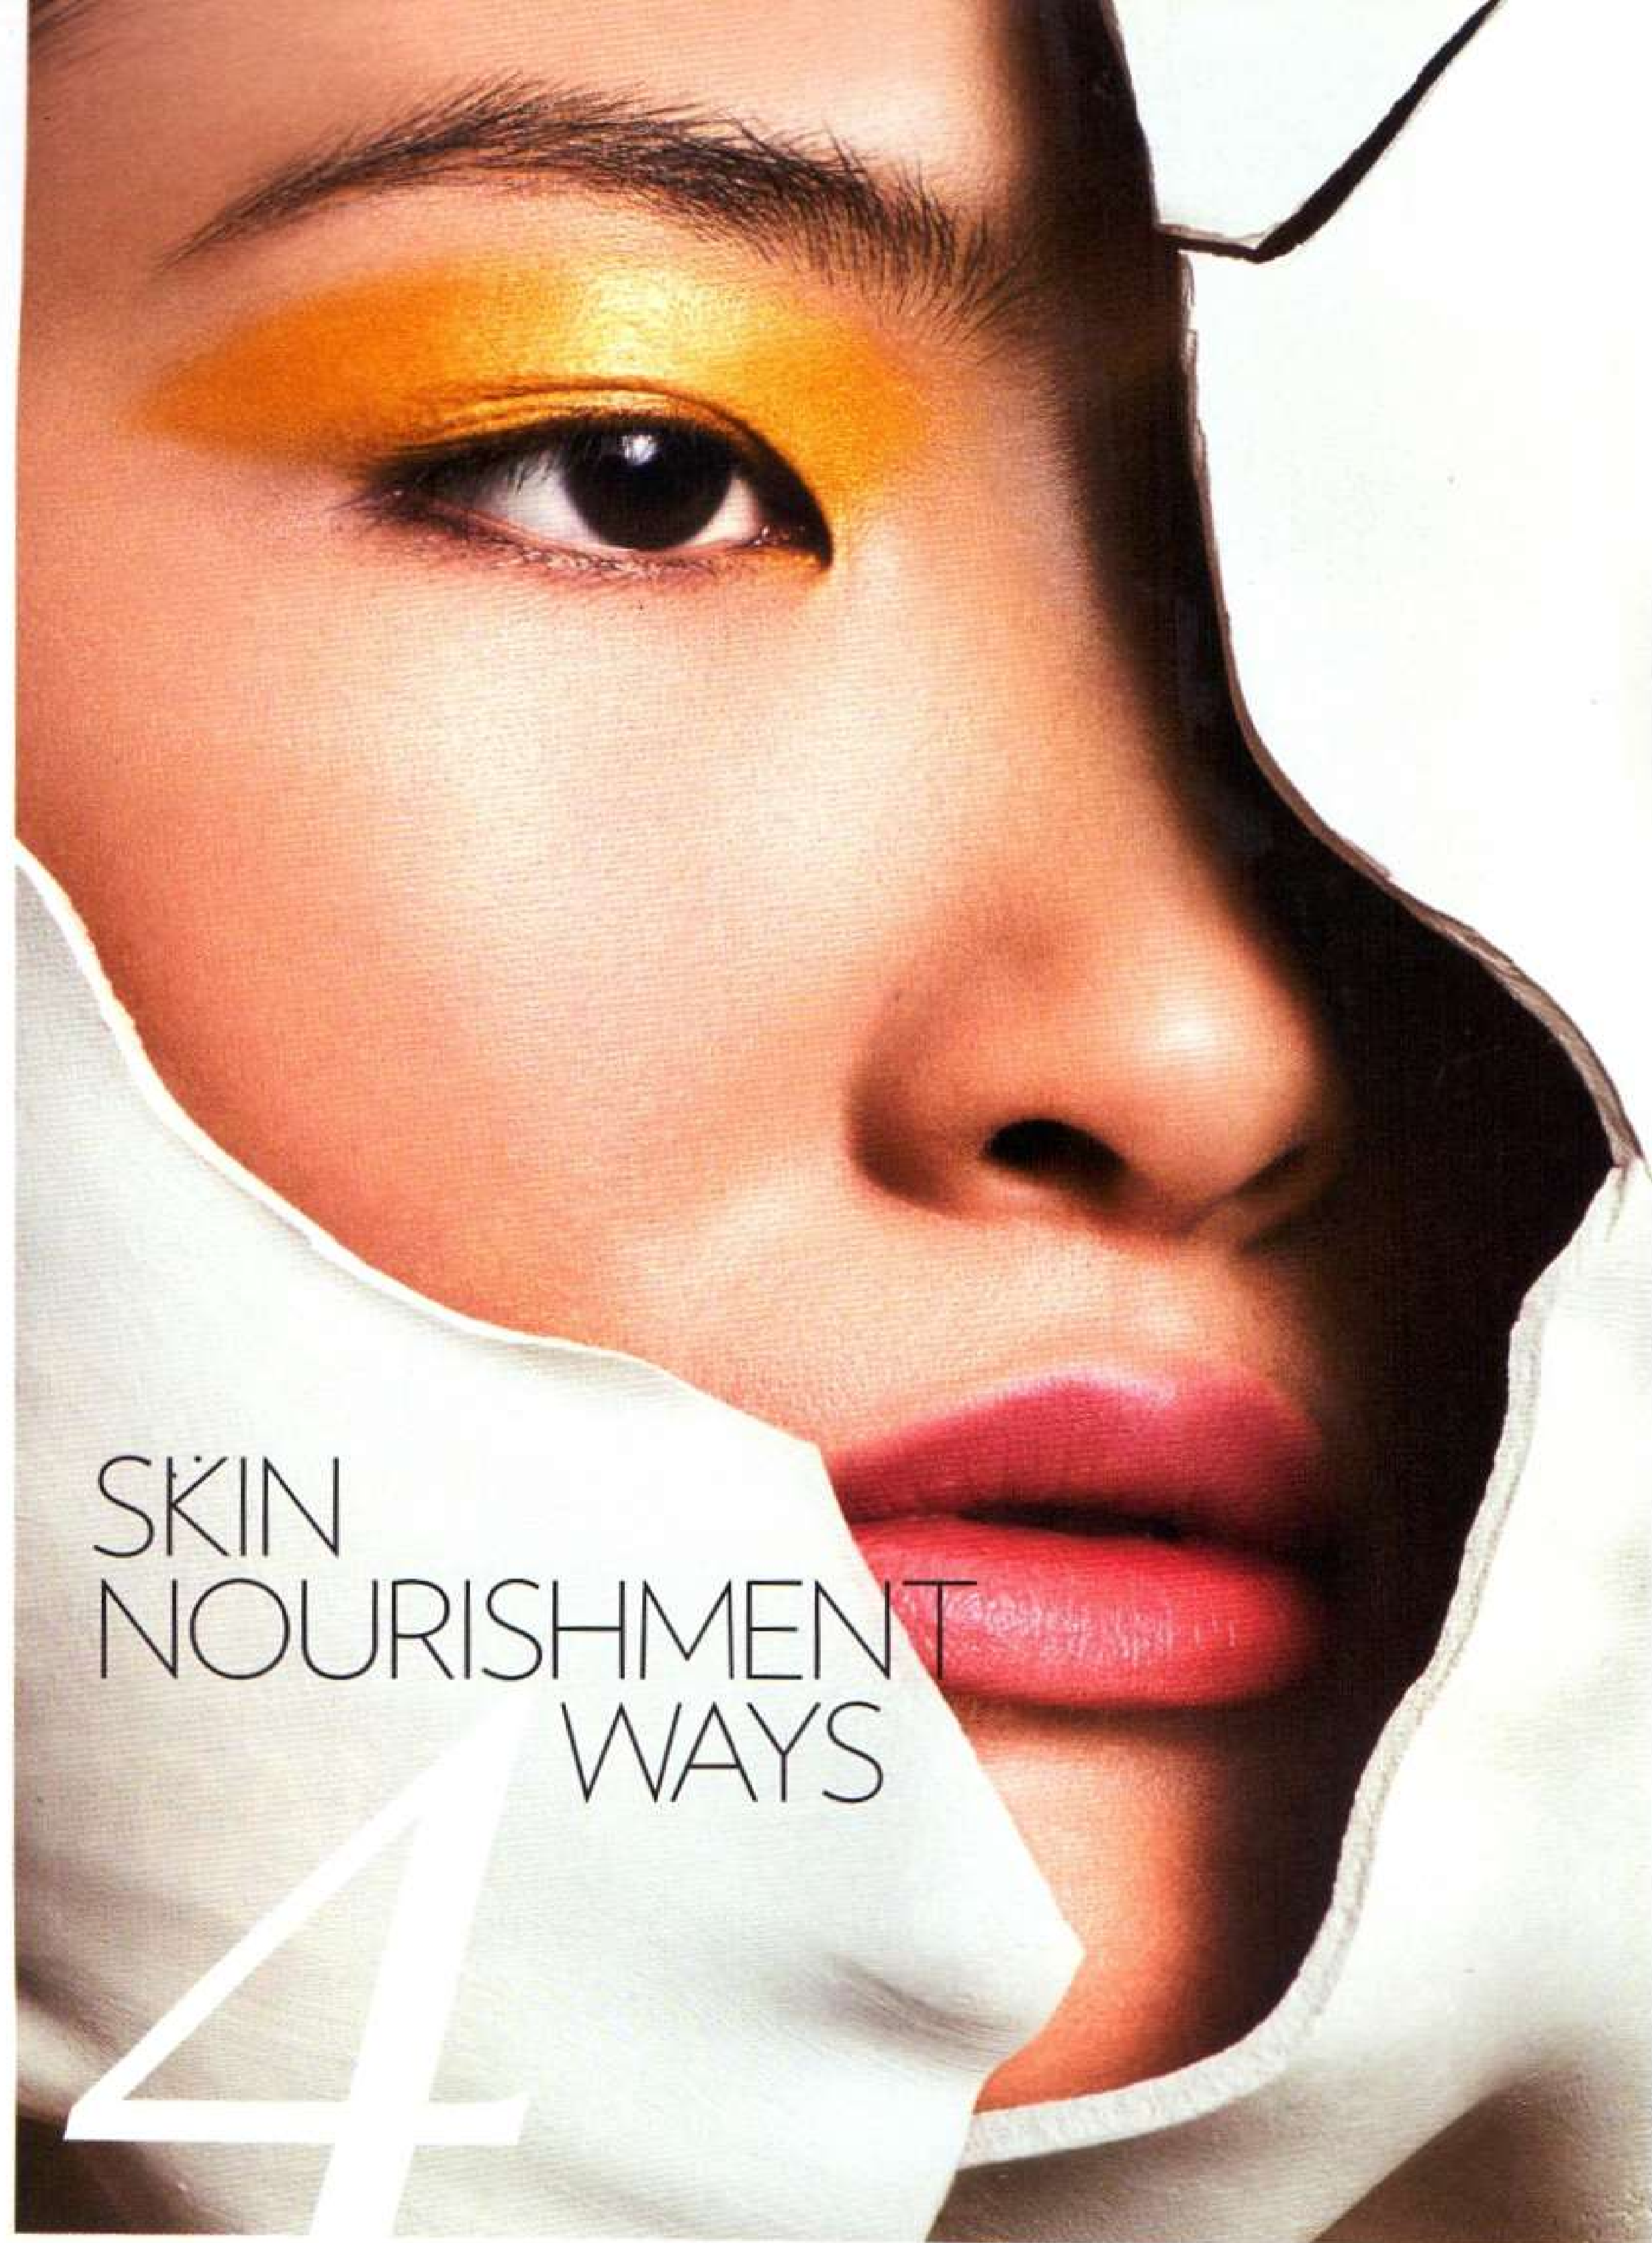

The newest dispatch from our favourite make-up artist Charlotte Tilbury is a glow-giving highlighter and blush duo, Pretty Youth Glow Filter. The texture is creamy and leaves cheeks with a flush of healthy colour. The Cheek Hug Brush (available with the palette) is genius—it picks just the right amount of product and deposits it exactly where it belongs. The two shades—a peachy coral and a rosey nude—are gorgeous on all skin tones.

SMELLS LIKE TWILLY

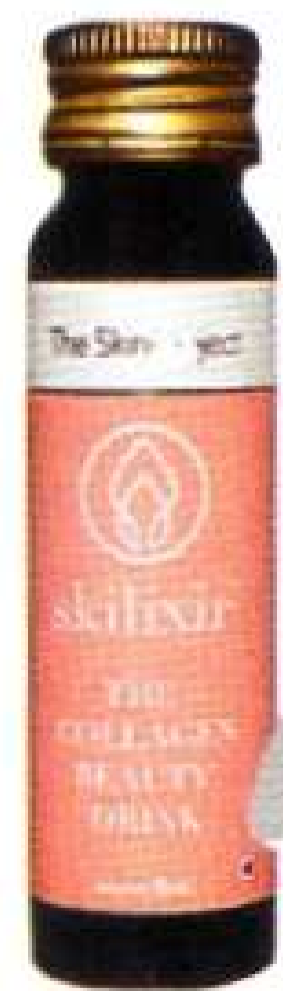

Our favourite Twilly d'Hermès—the powerful, addictive blend of ginger, tuberose and sandalwood—has been reincarnated as a bath collection.

Find the same heady notes in a shower cream, lotion, body balm, soap and deodorant—all minimally (and millennially) packed in pretty pastels. Price on request

SKIN NOURISHMENT WAYS

Drink it... out of a little bottle of The Skin Project's Skilixir. Alongside collagen, it contains ingredients like silk protein and silver ear mushroom. Together, they promise to maintain overall health of skin, hair and nails and we're hoping with regular use a bottle a day will keep the dermat (and those laugh lines) away.

The Skin Project Skilixir, ₹10,500 (30-day supply)

Absorb it... with Glamglow's gel moisturiser that looks (literally!) like the ocean. One look at the refreshing, icy blue texture and you'll know it's going to quench your skin's thirst. The formula is infused with varying sizes of hyaluronic acid molecules and bursts into water droplets when it touches your skin.

Glamglow Waterburst Hydrated Glow Moisturizer, ₹4,950

Layer it... at bedtime. Kiehl's Firming Mask infuses two powerful botanical ingredients—ginger leaf and hibiscus—that will lift up and smoothen skin while you snooze. Massage the velvety peachy-pink cream onto your face in upward motion and sleep on it.

Kiehl's Ginger Leaf & Hibiscus Firming Overnight Mask, ₹3,000

Balm it... with Decléor. Just like a balm for a bruise, consider this the antidote to skin damage caused by pollution and UV. The two variants—neroli amara for dehydrated skin and lavandula iris for ageing skin—work the nightshift to bring skin back to life through cell regeneration. The essential oils help lull your skin to sleep.

Decléor Aromessence Neroli Amara Night Balm, ₹2,800
